"MY MEASURE."

"A measure has been prepared on the lines suggested in my message." - President Cleveland's Address to Congress, December 4, 1892. Sing the song of protection.

The greatest; the best on earth;
A blessing it's been to this section
Until it gave rise to the birth
Of "my measure."

Work in abundance it gave us;
Good wages and cheap living, too;
But Grover then came to amaze us;
With all that he threatened to do
With "my measure."

We were happy, contented and rich;
But he thought that we wanted a "change";
So he plunged us all into the ditch
Of starvation, and there let us range
On "my measure."

It isn't good eating we find;
And no work rolls up pretty poor pay;
But even if once we were blind;
We'll reckon up some other day
By our measure."

Our homes now are desolate, bare,
Our furniture's gone into pawn,
But Wilson and Grover don't care;
Since they've labored and brought forth and born
"My measure."

Such robbery existing to rob;
While living in comfort and wealth;
Turning honest men out of a job;
Should have a regard for their health;
We've tried to prove it.

PERFECT TITLE OR NO SALE.

We believe that we have from $100 to $1000 worth of property in the market for purchase for either a dozen or more factors that we have to sell near Wichita. We would also like to have all persons know that we have a number of small parcels of property not having a perfect title, and in any case we shall fail to procure a perfect title we will once record it, purchased all money paid for same, and will then give a certificate on contract according to the contract. We desire to say that we have many bargains in real property, as well as terms.
